COCKTAILS

Add a splash of cranberry juice to a kamikaze and declare "How cosmopolitan" Made with local Lakeland vodka, a splash Of Cointreau. Topped up with cranberry & lime juice.

A true classic, made with Jose Cuerva silver tequila, triple sec & lime juice. On the rocks or straight up? Just ask.

A good old fashioned black Russian. Local Lakeland vodka and Kahlua coffee liqueur. Served in a heavy bottomed glass, over ice.

First made in 1915 and named after the town; Daiquiri, On the east coast Of Cuba. using white rum as a base topped with lime juice and sugar syrup.

Now, there are classic cocktails then there are classic cocktails. A smooth hit Of Jim Beam bourbon, red and dry vermouth topped with bitters and poured over the rocks.

A traditional prohibition era, gin based cocktail, with a Thorney How twist. Local Lakeland gin mixed with grenadine and served with a squeeze of lemon juice.
